Dear Rev. Ragona,

I just wanted to let you know that I am sending several Lessons to you today. You will be receiving three envelopes this time. In this envelope, please find the Lesson 7 Review Test (which I received from you recently), and also Lesson 12. In the second envelope there will be Lesson 14 and Lesson 15. In the third envelope will be Lesson 16 and Lesson 18.

According to the course manual, Lesson 13 and Lesson 17 are Review Tests. In her recent letter, Dr. Mona West informed me that she had sent these Review Tests on to you, so I would like to request the next ones as soon as you are able to send them to me.

Thank you again for your time and efforts. I am lifting you and your church in prayer as God continues to do exciting work among you all!

Respectfully,

Lisa Garner

Dear Rev. Ragona,

Greetings from the Texas Panhandle! I wanted to take the opportunity to thank you for returning lessons 1-5, and for your encouraging comments. I was delighted to know that I had finally been connected with an instructor and I do appreciate your time and effort from what I am sure is a very busy schedule.

Enclosed please find my completed Lesson 6. According to the course manual, my next assignment is a review test over Part A of the course. I assume that you will send that to me since it is not included in the syllabus. As soon as I receive the test, I think I would like to take a few days before opening it to review Lessons 1-6 so that the material will be fresh on my mind. It is my understanding that the review test is taken on the honor system, but if a proctor is required, I believe that my supervising pastor, Rev. Renae Phillips, would gladly assist. If you could advise me as to whether the test needs to be returned to you by a specific date, I would appreciate it. Thank you again for your assistance in this course. I look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Lisa Garner

Dear Reverend Ragona,

Enclosed please find a copy of the letter and Lesson six from the course "OUR STORY TOO". I hope that the quality of this second will be acceptable as the originals were apparently lost in the mail when I sent them to you in May. As per our telephone conversation today, I have also enclosed Lessons eight and nine in this envelope. I have also mailed Lesson ten and Lesson eleven at the same time in a separate envelope. I apologize for bombarding you with all of this material at once, but I have been working steadily while waiting for the return of Lesson six and the arrival of the Lesson seven Review Test from you, as I was unaware that you had not received my last mailing to you.

It is my understanding that my grade for this course must reach the C.C.C.C. office and the Samaritan Registrar before December 31, 1993, to receive credit for the course. With that in mind, it is my intention to have sent all completed Lessons to you by the middle of October. I hope this will allow you time to grade them and send out my grade.

Again, I thank you for your time and interest, and look forward to receiving the Lesson seven review test soon.

Respectfully,

Lisa R. Garner

Dear Rev. Ragons,

Greetings from the Texas Panhandle! I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for resuming lessons 1-5, and for your encouraging efforts. I was delighted to know that I had finally been connected to an instructor and I do appreciate your time and effort. What I am sure is a very busy schedule.

Please find my completed Lesson 2, according to the class manual, my next assignment is a review paper over the course. I assume that you will send the review paper to me as it is not included in the syllabus. As soon as I receive the review paper, I think I would like to take a few days before I can review Lesson 1-6 so that the material will be fresh in my mind. It is my understanding that the review paper is on the honor system, but if a project is required, I would love that my supervising pastor, Rev. Rags Ragons, could help me. If you could advise me as to whether the review paper is to be returned to you by a specific date, I would appreciate it. Thank you again for your assistance in this course. I look forward to working with you.

Respectfully,

Marge -

Rev. Jim Lewey, my pastor, has the final @ church.
I've been granted an extension until October 31, '93 due to Samaritan being in transition, the delay in getting a faculty advisor, & my having assignments to do before leaving for Orientation June 13. So, I'll study for & take the final after Orientation & prior to the Oct. 31 deadline. Mona should have - or should be sending you a letter to this effect.
Thanks for grading my paperwork! This means you now have Review Tests C & D, and lessons 15, 16, 18, 19, & 20.
God bless & see you in Phoenix!
